

Pressure Online: Response Drill

BIG IDEA If someone threatens you online, there is a four-step response you can practice now: STOP, SAVE, TELL, REPORT. Do not pay. It is never your fault. Telling is the most powerful step.

1 HOOK 2'

2 ACTIVITY 8'

3 DISCUSS 3'

4 TAKEAWAY 2'

COUNSELOR HEADS-UP FIRST + OPT-OUT PLAN Pre-notice and opt-out slip out 5 school days ahead (Appendix A).

Counselor checklist done (Appendix B), counselor on call that day and the next. Alternate R7-ALT and a supervising adult ready. Teach mid-week.

1 HOOK 2 MIN 60-second script Hackles up? Pressure that feels wrong is worth listening to. If anything went wrong, it is never your fault. “Three things first. No pictures and no graphic details today, and nobody shares anything personal. Your Pass card, the Quiet Corner and the Step-Out card are open at any time, with no explanation. And it is never your fault. Sometimes someone friendly online gets a private picture, then threatens to share it unless the person pays or does more. That is sextortion, a crime, and the person threatening is responsible. We will learn a plan and practice it.”

2 ACTIVITY 8 MIN The Response Drill

- 1 (1 min) Read CF-7. Anika, thirteen, sends something she regrets to a “kid her age.” Then: “Send gift cards or I will show everyone you know. You have one hour.” She thinks, “This is my fault.” That thought is what the person is counting on.
- 2 (3 min) The Drill, one cue each. STOP (palm out): stop replying, do not pay, do not delete yet. SAVE (pinch): usernames and threats as words, never a picture. TELL (point to chest): a trusted adult now. REPORT (tap desk): in the app, NCMEC, Take It Down, with an adult.
- 3 (3 min) Triads. Teller: “I need help. Someone online is threatening me. I have not paid and I will not. I have saved the messages. Can you help me report it?” Listener: “Thank you for telling me. This is not your fault. I am going to help you.” Observer checks; rotate at 60 seconds.
- 4 (1 min) The person counts on shame and panic. Tell, and do not pay, beat both.

3 DISCUSS 3 MIN

- 1 “What does shame do to a person’s choices? How can a friend help?”
- 2 “Whose fault is this? How do you know?”
- 3 “A friend says this is happening. What do you say first?” (It is not your fault. I will go with you to tell someone.)

Questions are about the character. No personal stories.

PREP IN 5 MINUTES

Materials: Four Drill Cards, Workbook CF-7, R7 Tell Card and Listener Card per triad, Observer checklist, Pass and Step-Out cards.

- ☐ Post the Drill Cards; set up the Quiet Corner.
- ☐ Opt-out students and the R7-ALT space are arranged.
- ☐ Show no image. Ask for no personal story.

4 TAKEAWAY 2 MIN “Pause is STOP: do not reply, do not pay. Tell is the most powerful step. STOP, SAVE, TELL, REPORT. It is never your fault, and telling is never too late.”

Hand signal: STOP palm out, SAVE pinch, TELL point to chest, REPORT tap desk.

EXIT TICKET “Write the four steps in order, then one sentence for a friend who tells you this.” Optional: “[] I would like to talk to the counselor privately.” Read it the same day.

FUN BOOST Myth or Plan (calm; no scoring).

Thumbs up (plan) or sideways (myth): “Paying makes it stop” (myth), “A calm Stop and Tell beats any deadline” (plan).

LEVEL-UP Friend Card+. Write what you would say to a friend who tells you this, and the adult you would go with them to see.

DIFFERENTIATE Drill Cards at desks; read the Tell Card in a pair.

FAMILY CARD Say: “If anyone pressures or threatens you online, I will not be angry. We will deal with it together.” Report: report.cybertip.org. Remove images: takeitdown.ncmec.org.

IF A STUDENT TELLS YOU SOMETHING

- Say: “Thank you for telling me. You did the right thing.”
- “This is not your fault. The person who did this is responsible.”
- “I can’t keep this secret. I need to bring in people who can help, and I will tell you who.”
- Do not say: “Why did you send it?” or “Are you sure?”
- “I won’t tell anyone.”
- “Let me see.”

First 10 Minutes: see the Disclosure Guide.

Then: tell your counselor or designated person right away; follow your school policy and your state’s reporting law (NCMEC CyberTipline for online cases). Never view, copy or forward an image. Danger: 911.
