

The Oops Button

BIG IDEA If I tap something yucky, scary, or by mistake, I say “Oops!” and tell a grown-up. I am not in trouble.

2 ACTIVITY 8'

3 DISCUSS 3'

4 TAKEAWAY 2'

1 HOOK 2 MIN 60-second script Hold the big red Oops Button.

“Friends, who has ever made a mistake? Everybody does, grown-ups too. Dev was playing on the family tablet. He tapped something by mistake and a picture came up that was yucky. His tummy felt funny. He wanted to hide the tablet and pretend it never happened. That feeling is normal. But Dev remembered the Oops Button. It is a button in our heart. When we tap it, we say: “Oops! I need help.” His grandmother said, “Thank you for telling me. It is not your fault. Let’s fix it together.” And you will never be in trouble for pressing it.”

2 ACTIVITY 8 MIN Press the Oops Button

- 1 (1 min) Hand out the cards: Oops (I tap it), Tell (I tell a grown-up), Fixed (we fix it together).
- 2 (2 min) Model with Hackle. “Oops! I need help!” You answer: “Thank you for telling me. It’s not your fault. Let’s fix it together.” Show the crossed-out frown: a grown-up should not say “Why did you do that?” If one does, tell another helper.
- 3 (3 min) Pair practice, three rounds. “Oops! I need help.” / “Thank you for telling me. Let’s fix it together.” Rounds: a confusing pop-up; a picture made your tummy feel funny; the screen went dark.
- 4 (1 min) What the grown-up does next: look calmly, turn it off together, hug.
- 5 (1 min) Body feelings. Funny tummy, hot face, fast heart: “Pause. Tell someone.” Smell the flower, blow the candle.

4 TAKEAWAY 2 MIN “If something online feels yucky, I press the Oops Button and Tell. I am never in trouble.”

Hand signal: “Oops! Tell! Fixed!” Hands on cheeks, then hand on heart and reach out, then arms up and wiggle.

EXIT TICKET Color the speech bubble a helper says (the heart). Children color their Oops Button card red and take it home.

PREP IN 5 MINUTES

Materials: An Oops Button card per child, a big red paper OOPS! circle, Hackle puppet, two reaction signs, Activity Book page, crayons.

- ☐ Print the Oops Button cards; make the big red circle.
- ☐ Make the calm-face sign and the crossed-out frowning-face sign.
- ☐ Draw a three-picture strip: look calmly, turn the screen off, hug.

3 DISCUSS 3 MIN

- 1 “What does a good grown-up helper say back?” (Thank you for telling me.)
- 2 “Are you in trouble for pressing the Oops Button?” (No! Never.)
- 3 “What if the grown-up is busy?” (Keep telling until someone helps.)

FUN BOOST Oops, Tell, Fixed! (30 seconds). Three times, faster each time, then one calm breath.

LEVEL-UP Oops at Home. Think of three small oopsies that are not about screens and what a helper says back.

DIFFERENTIATE Allow a “silent Oops”: hand the card to the teacher. If a child may fear punishment at home, point to school helpers and do not ask why.

FAMILY CARD Tell your child you will never be upset with them for telling you: “Thank you for telling me.”

IF A STUDENT TELLS YOU SOMETHING

- Say: “Thank you for telling me.”
- “I believe you. It is not your fault.”
- “I will get help from someone whose job is to keep kids safe.”
- Do not say: “I promise I won’t tell anyone.”
- “Why didn’t you tell me sooner?” or “Are you sure?”
- Any leading question (“Did he touch you?”).

First 10 Minutes: see the Disclosure Guide.

Then: tell your counselor or designated person right away. Follow your school policy and your state’s reporting law.
