01 The librarian's one page

What it is. Hackles Club is a games-first set of short programs that teach children to notice when something online feels off, and to tell a trusted adult: Hackles up? Pause. Check. Tell. A library can run it as a story time, a weekly club, a summer program or a one-day Hackles Day. It needs no screens.

Why a library. Libraries are trusted places where children already come to ask questions. A librarian is one of the trusted adults on a child's Trusted Hand.

What you need

NEED	DETAIL
Two adults	Two screened adults at every session, per your library's child-safety policy [COUNSEL TO CONFIRM]
Space	A story-time corner or a meeting room with a visible window or open door
Supplies	Under $10 for a program (index cards, tape, pom-poms)
Materials	Print from this folder. Read-alouds come from the Games and Fun Pack, file 04.
Time	30 minutes for a story time, 45 to 60 for a club, 60 to 90 for Hackles Day

What you do not do

- You do not collect any information about a child. Use your library's normal registration only if you already need it, and keep it with the library.
- You do not use library accounts, library computers or any device in the sessions.
- You do not teach sextortion, grooming, trafficking, sexual content, threats or self-harm. If a family asks, thank them and refer them to the school counselor, the resources in the Disclosure and Incident Guide (kit/05_Teacher_Support/), or your library's safeguarding lead.
- You never promise a child secrecy. If a child tells you something about their safety, use the card in Start Here, Section 6, and follow your library's policy and the law [COUNSEL TO CONFIRM reporting duty where you live].

02 Book display

Titles are left blank on purpose. The authors of this kit did not verify that any title is in print or in your collection, so the list below is a template. A librarian chooses titles, checks them against the catalog and the library's collection policy, and reads them before displaying them. [librarian to fill]

03 Programming ideas

A. STORY TIME (30 MINUTES, AGES 5 TO 9)

MIN	WHAT
3	Welcome, two promises, Hackles Chant
12	Read-aloud from the Games and Fun Pack (file 04): Read-Aloud 1 "Hackle's Quills Pop Up", Read-Aloud 2 "Latch and the Silly Words", Read-Aloud 3 "Pip Picks a Shell", Read-Aloud 4 "Fixit and the Oops Button". Ages 8 to 9: Read-Aloud 5 "The Treasure That Wasn't", Read-Aloud 6 "Mateo's Passphrase Puzzle", Read-Aloud 8 "Sam's Whoops Day".
5	Talk: two or three questions from the "Talk about it" section of the story
5	A quick game: Pause Palm Freeze, Share or Shell, or a Quick Catch of 6 cards
3	Ember's Warm Breath
2	Take-home card and a library stamp

EACH SESSION PAGE IN Track A and Track B has its own story-time version.

Six-week story-time series: Hackles Up, Latch, Peeper, Pip, Fixit, Kind Clicks.

B. AFTER-SCHOOL OR WEEKLY CLUB (45 TO 60 MINUTES)

Run a track from file 02, 03 or 04.

C. SUMMER READING TIE-IN

Add a Hackles Passport (Section 4) to your summer reading program as a second page. Children earn a stamp for each Hackles session they attend, or for each activity done at home with a family adult. No child's name goes on any list.

D. DROP-IN GAMES TABLE

Keep a table with a Quick Catch (8 cards) and a Pause Palm sign. Any child or family can stop and play for 10 minutes. A librarian runs it. Rotate through Sets A, B and C.

E. ESCAPE-THE-ROOM AFTERNOON

Run the Quiet Door mission (Track B Session 6 or the Track C Account Vault) in a meeting room, with teams of 3 to 5 and a Door Keeper. Tape the Door on the floor. Allow 45 minutes.

F. TEENS AS HELPERS

Teens aged 14 and up may help at younger sessions if your policy allows: hand out cards, read card backs, cheer. A teen never counts as one of the two adults and is never alone with a younger child [COUNSEL TO CONFIRM].

G. FAMILY NIGHT

Follow file 05. A library meeting room is ideal.

H. A "ASK A LIBRARIAN" MOMENT

End each program with: "If you ever have a question about something online, a librarian is a person you can ask." Make sure your staff know how to respond: calm, kind, no judgment, and no investigation. Use the Start Here card.

I. COMMUNITY PARTNERS

If you invite a guest (a local police officer, a school counselor), they follow your library's guest-speaker policy and the Hackles rules: no scary stories, no real cases, no sensitive topics in the Club. [COUNSEL TO CONFIRM]

04 The take-home Hackles Passport

What it is. A small folded card that a child keeps. A librarian or leader stamps or initials a box when the child does the activity, in the library or at home with a family adult. The library keeps no record.

How to make it. Print the passport page on card stock, cut on the line, fold in half. Stamp with any stamp, a sticker or a pen mark.

PASSPORT RULES

- A child can start any box.
- Anyone, including a family adult, can stamp.
- A completed passport earns a library certificate (file 13) or a sticker.
- Passports are theirs to keep. Nobody checks them against a list.
- If a child cannot read, a helper reads each line.

PASSPORT AT HOME

Add a line on the back: "Do the activity at home with a family adult. Initial the box. Bring it back."

06 For library staff: if a child tells you something

PRINT THIS CARD AND keep it behind the desk. It is a short version of Start Here, Section 6.

- Stay calm. Keep your voice soft.
- Say: "Thank you for telling me. This is not your fault. You are not in trouble."
- Move to a place that is private for the child and visible to a colleague.
- Listen. "Tell me more." Do not ask "Why did you...?"
- Be honest: "I can't keep this a secret, because I need to get you help. I will tell you who I tell."
- Write down their exact words afterward.
- Tell your library's safeguarding lead the same day, or at once if the child is in danger. Report personally if the law requires it. [FILL IN local rule] [COUNSEL TO CONFIRM]
- If a device holds pictures, do not look at, copy or forward them.
- If a child may hurt themselves, stay with them and call your emergency or crisis number.
