FIELD NOTE	No. 1
Status: DRAFT. Counsel review of the forms, timelines, retention and sharing rules is required. [COUNSEL/HR TO CONFIRM] These forms hold sensitive information about a child. Keep them locked, share on a need-to-know basis only, and never put any of it in the impact tracker.

How the forms work

FORM	WHEN	WHO COMPLETES IT	WHO RECEIVES IT	TIME LIMIT
A. Disclosure note	A child tells a mentor about harm, a threat or something worrying	The mentor	Coordinator, who confirms the school's protocol was followed	Within 1 hour of the event; verbal report to staff member immediately
B. Boundary concern	A mentor or any adult breaks, nearly breaks or is asked to break a rule	The mentor or Station Lead	Coordinator and faculty advisor	Same day
C. Injury or accident	A child or adult is hurt or has a medical issue	The Station Lead	Coordinator and school staff; school protocol governs	Same day
D. Photo or social-media breach	Someone takes a photo, or a post identifies a child	Anyone who sees it	Coordinator	Immediately
E. End-of-event check-in	After every event	Every mentor	Coordinator	Before leaving
F. Complaint about a mentor	A child, parent, teacher or mentor raises a concern about a mentor	Whoever receives it	Coordinator and faculty advisor; if it concerns them, [COLLEGE REPORTING LINE]	Same day

Principles

- The staff member present is told first and in person, and the school's protocol governs. The form follows.
- Record facts only: what was said, seen or done. No opinions, no diagnoses, no guesses.
- Do not contact the child or family afterward. Do not discuss it with other mentors beyond the Station Lead and coordinator.
- If a child is in immediate danger, call 911. Do not wait to fill in a form.
- The coordinator decides, with the advisor, whether the college needs to take further action. Mentors do not decide whether it is abuse.

Emergency contacts (fill in before every event)

Retention and sharing

- Keep forms in a locked cabinet or access-controlled system with the coordinator and the faculty advisor.
- Retention period: [COUNSEL/HR TO CONFIRM].
- Share only with the school's designated person, counsel, HR and authorities, as required.
- Aggregate counts of forms filed (not content) may be reported to the advisor each semester, with no details.

Hackles has not been evaluated in a controlled study. These forms do not replace the host school's own procedures.
