

GRADES K-2 · AGES 5-7 · TEACHER'S COPY

Lesson at a Glance

Trust your hackles. Pause · Check · Tell.

One printed page for every lesson. Read a card in two minutes, then teach it in fifteen: Hook 2, Activity 8, Discuss 3, Takeaway and exit ticket 2. Each card keeps the lesson's own words, condensed. The Teacher Guide stays the full source.

HOW TO USE A CARD

- 1. Read the card top to bottom. Prep in 5 minutes, then the Hook script, then the Activity steps. That is the whole two-minute read.
- 2. Teach by the clock. The strip under the title shows the 15 minutes. Numbers 1 to 4 on the card match the strip.
- 3. Pick one Fun Boost and fit it inside your 15 minutes. Level-Up is an optional extension.
- 4. Sensitive lesson? A banner reads COUNSELOR HEADS-UP FIRST + OPT-OUT PLAN. Do those steps before you teach. A review-status box means the lesson needs its review before classroom use.
- 5. Keep the boxed strip within reach. "If a student tells you something" is on every card. The back page is the quick reference.

Pacing planner

Standard pacing: 10 weeks, one 15-minute lesson per week. Do Lesson 1 first, always: every other lesson assumes children know their Tell-Someone Team.

Wk	Lesson	Date	Heads-up	Notice	Taught	Notes
1	1. My Tell-Someone Team		-	-	☐	Lesson 1 first, always
2	2. Secret Passwords		-	-	☐
3	3. Pause and Ask		-	-	☐
4	4. The Oops Button		-	-	☐
5	5. Private vs. Public		-	-	☐
6	6. Online Friends vs. Real Friends		☐	-	☐	Teach before Lesson 9
7	7. Kind Clicks		-	-	☐
8	8. Real or Pretend?		-	-	☐	Family code word at home
9	9. My Body Is Mine		☐	☐	☐	Family notice a week ahead; counselor co-teach if required
10	10. Screen Balance		-	-	☐	Certificate ceremony

Heads-up: counselor told (box on every sensitive lesson, recommended or required). Notice: family pre-notice and opt-out slip sent (required lessons only).

SENSITIVE LESSON TIMELINE

3 weeks before. Confirm which lessons are sensitive, check your policy on notice and opt-out, confirm counselor availability.

2 weeks before. Send the family pre-notice with the lesson overview and a review option.

1 week before. Offer a preview. Collect opt-out requests. Arrange alternates.

2 days before. Send the counselor heads-up message. Confirm coverage.

Day of. Calm opening and closing scripts. Counselor on call. Offer the ask-the-counselor option.

24 hours after. Debrief. Check in with anyone who was upset. Document any disclosure.

1 week after. Send the follow-up note with the take-home card.

NOTES FOR THIS BAND

- Fast track: 5 weeks, two lessons a week (Mon and Thu). Keep Lessons 1 and 4 first.
- Revisit: spend 2 minutes at the start of each lesson on the chant and a quick review.
- Family loop: send the family card home after each lesson and collect reply slips.

My Tell-Someone Team

BIG IDEA I have grown-ups who help me, and I know the words to ask them: “I need help.”

1 HOOK 2'

2 ACTIVITY 8'

3 DISCUSS 3'

4 TAKEAWAY 2'

PREP IN 5 MINUTES

Materials: Hand-trace sheet, crayons, Hackles poster and character cards, Hackle puppet, chart paper “Our Helpers at School”, pocket cards.

- ☐ Copy the hand sheets and pre-cut the pocket cards.
- ☐ Title the chart paper “Our Helpers at School.”
- ☐ Know your designated person’s name and room.

1 HOOK 2 MIN 60-second script Hold Hackle. Speak slowly and warmly. “Friends, sit in our circle. This is Hackle. Hackle’s spikes stand up whenever something feels funny. Let’s all be Hackle! Crouch small and calm: Hackles Down. Something feels funny... POP! Spring up with wiggly fingers on your head. (Twice, bigger the second time.) That tingly uh-oh feeling is your hackles. When mine go up, I Pause, I Check, and if I need help, I Tell. (Show Hackles Up: hand brushed up the back of the neck.) A false alarm is always okay. And it is never your fault: you will never be in trouble for asking for help. Say it with me: “Never in trouble for asking for help!””

2 ACTIVITY 8 MIN My Helper Hand

- 1 (1 min) Show the poster. A trusted grown-up listens, helps and keeps you safe.
- 2 (1 min) Name school helpers on the chart: teacher, counselor, nurse, principal, bus driver. “You can always tell any grown-up at school.”
- 3 (3 min) Fill the Helper Hand. Three fingers, one trusted grown-up each (draw it or ask for help writing). No one at home? “Let’s put your teacher and the counselor on your hand.”
- 4 (2 min) Practice in pairs: “I need help.” Partner: “Thank you for telling me. I will help.” Switch.
- 5 (1 min) “Keep telling.” Busy grown-up? Tap the next finger.

3 DISCUSS 3 MIN

- 1 “What do you say when you need help?” (I need help.)
- 2 “What if the first grown-up is too busy?” (Keep telling. Go to the next helper.)
- 3 “Can you be in trouble for asking for help?” (Never.)

4 TAKEAWAY 2 MIN “I have helpers, and I keep telling until someone helps.”

Hand signal: Pause (palm). Check (eyes). Tell (hand on heart, then reach out). Tap five fingertips: “Tell... tell... tell... until someone helps!”

EXIT TICKET Circle the people who can be helpers; color a star by a favorite. Each child should name 3; follow up in a small group if fewer.

FUN BOOST Spike Pop (30 seconds). Crouch small (Hackles Down), whisper “Something feels funny...”, then POP up with wiggling fingers on your head. Freeze in a Pause Palm and breathe.

LEVEL-UP Helper Spotter. Spot three school helpers on the way to lunch and wave.

DIFFERENTIATE Pre-draw faces on the fingers; pointing is fine. Never ask a child to name a grown-up at home in front of the class.

FAMILY CARD Ask: “Who are the three people on your Tell-Someone Team?” Say: “You will never be in trouble for telling me something.”

IF A STUDENT TELLS YOU SOMETHING

First 10 Minutes: see the Disclosure Guide.

Then: tell your counselor or designated person right away. Follow your school policy and your state’s reporting law.

Secret Passwords

BIG IDEA A password is a secret key. I keep it private and make it silly-strong.

1 HOOK 2' | 2 ACTIVITY 8' | 3 DISCUSS 3' | 4 TAKEAWAY 2'

1 HOOK 2 MIN 60-second script Hold up the treasure chest and the key. “Look at this treasure chest. Only the key opens it. If I leave the key lying around, anyone could take my treasure. So I keep my key private. A password is a secret key for things on a computer or tablet. Only you and your grown-up at home may know it. Omar’s friend asked, “What’s your password? I want to play your game.” What do you think Omar did? (Take two answers.) Omar said, “Passwords are private,” and put up his Pause Palm. That is the Pause in Pause, Check, Tell. Today we make a silly, strong password, just for pretend.””

- 2 ACTIVITY 8 MIN Silly Three-Word Passwords
- (1 min) Silly and long. Three silly words are hard to guess and easy to remember: “purple pickle bus.” Say it together.
 - (1 min) What NOT to use: your name, your birthday, “1234.”
 - (3 min) Build one. Pick a card from each pile, say the words, draw them as three little pictures. “This is pretend. We make a real one with our grown-up at home.”
 - (2 min) Passwords are private game. A sneaky asker (a friend, a game chat, “I’m from the game company”). Each time: Pause Palm, “Passwords are private. I’ll tell my grown-up.”
 - (1 min) Lock the chest. “Click! Locked.”

DIFFERENTIATE Offer 3 pre-picked cards; Kindergarten uses two words. Do not assume every child has a device.

FAMILY CARD Make a silly three-word password together and tell your child: “Passwords are private. Only you and I know it.”

- PREP IN 5 MINUTES
- Materials: Treasure chest (box) with a key, three word-card piles (Color/Feeling, Animal/Thing, Food/Silly), Activity Book page, crayons.
- ☐ Put the key in the chest.
 - ☐ Set the three word-card piles at each table.
 - ☐ Copy the Lesson 2 page.

- 3 DISCUSS 3 MIN
- “Who can know your password?” (Me and my grown-up at home.)
 - “What makes a password strong?” (Long, silly, three words.)
 - “What if you told someone by accident?” (Tell your grown-up. We can change it. Not in trouble!)

4 TAKEAWAY 2 MIN “A password is a secret key. I keep it private. If someone asks, I Pause and tell a grown-up.”

Hand signal: Pause (palm) when someone asks for your password. Tell your grown-up.

EXIT TICKET Circle the pictures where the password is safe (showing a parent, a locked chest, the child pausing). Revisit with any child who circles the whisper-to-a-friend picture.

FUN BOOST Walk the Password (30 seconds). Act out your three silly words in three big moves, then freeze and lock with a “click!”

LEVEL-UP Spiral check: “Who on my Helper Hand can I tell?” Grade 2: add a fourth silly word.

IF A STUDENT TELLS YOU SOMETHING

- Say: “Thank you for telling me.”
- “I believe you. It is not your fault.”
- “I will get help from someone whose job is to keep kids safe.”

- Do not say: “I promise I won’t tell anyone.”
- “Why didn’t you tell me sooner?” or “Are you sure?”
- Any leading question (“Did he touch you?”).

First 10 Minutes: see the Disclosure Guide.

Then: tell your counselor or designated person right away. Follow your school policy and your state’s reporting law.

Pause and Ask

BIG IDEA When something pops up, or says “FREE!”, I Pause and ask a grown-up.

1 HOOK 2'

2 ACTIVITY 8'

3 DISCUSS 3'

4 TAKEAWAY 2'

PREP IN 5 MINUTES

Materials: Screen frame cut from poster board, 8 to 10 pop-up cards, a red and a green paper circle per child, Activity Book page.

- ☐ Cut the screen frame; pick 6 to 8 cards (about 60 percent to Pause, 40 percent okay).
- ☐ Make red and green circles (or use thumbs).
- ☐ Write FREE! WON! HURRY! on chart paper.

1 HOOK 2 MIN 60-second script Hold up the empty screen frame. “This is a pretend tablet screen. Maya is playing a game with her dad right next to her. Suddenly, POP! (Pop a card up: “YOU WON! FREE GEMS! TAP HERE!” Children will jump or giggle. That is the point.) Maya is curious, but her hackles go up. What does Hackle say? (Children: “Pause!”) She puts up her hand like a stop sign and says, “Dad, something popped up. Can you check?” Tricky pop-ups say FREE! and YOU WON! and HURRY! They want you to tap fast, without thinking. We will pause and ask.”

2 ACTIVITY 8 MIN Pop-Up Parade

- 1 (1 min) Teach the signal. “When something pops up and I’m not sure, I...” Pause Palm, “Pause!” Then “Ask a grown-up!”
- 2 (4 min) Pop-Up Parade. Slip a card behind the frame. Hold up red (Pause and ask!) or green (okay, grown-up still nearby). “What made you choose?” Run 6 to 8 cards.
- 3 (2 min) Tricky words chant: “Free? Won? Hurry? Pause and ask!”
- 4 (1 min) The grown-up responds. A volunteer says, “Something popped up. Can you check?” You whisper the reply: “Thank you for pausing and asking. Let’s look together.” Swap roles.

3 DISCUSS 3 MIN

- 1 “What do we do when something pops up and we aren’t sure?” (Pause. Ask a grown-up.)
- 2 “Why do tricky pop-ups say ‘hurry?’” (They want us to tap without thinking.)
- 3 “What if you already tapped it?” (Tell a grown-up. Not in trouble!)

4 TAKEAWAY 2 MIN “When something pops up or says ‘FREE!’, I Pause and Ask a grown-up.”

Hand signal: Pause (palm). Check (eyes, look for a grown-up). Tell: “Can you check this?”

EXIT TICKET Draw a hand-stop sign on the screen where you should Pause (the flashing YOU WON screen).

FUN BOOST Pop-Up Pop! (30 seconds).

Crouch like sleeping pop-ups. On a red-border card, POP up, freeze in a Pause Palm and say “Ask!” On green, stay crouched and hum.

LEVEL-UP Tricky-Word Hunt. Find a real “FREE!” on a sign or cereal box with a grown-up and show your Pause Palm.

DIFFERENTIATE Use 4 cards with color-coded borders. For impulsive children, pair the Pause Palm with a breath (smell the flower, blow the candle).

FAMILY CARD Say, “Can you check this pop-up with me?” and thank your child for asking.

IF A STUDENT TELLS YOU SOMETHING

- Say: “Thank you for telling me.”
- “I believe you. It is not your fault.”
- “I will get help from someone whose job is to keep kids safe.”
- Do not say: “I promise I won’t tell anyone.”
- “Why didn’t you tell me sooner?” or “Are you sure?”
- Any leading question (“Did he touch you?”).

First 10 Minutes: see the Disclosure Guide.

Then: tell your counselor or designated person right away. Follow your school policy and your state’s reporting law.

The Oops Button

BIG IDEA If I tap something yucky, scary, or by mistake, I say “Oops!” and tell a grown-up. I am not in trouble.

1 HOOK 2'

2 ACTIVITY 8'

3 DISCUSS 3'

4 TAKEAWAY 2'

1 HOOK 2 MIN 60-second script Hold the big red Oops Button.

“Friends, who has ever made a mistake? Everybody does, grown-ups too. Dev was playing on the family tablet. He tapped something by mistake and a picture came up that was yucky. His tummy felt funny. He wanted to hide the tablet and pretend it never happened. That feeling is normal. But Dev remembered the Oops Button. It is a button in our heart. When we tap it, we say: “Oops! I need help.” His grandmother said, “Thank you for telling me. It is not your fault. Let’s fix it together.” And you will never be in trouble for pressing it.”

2 ACTIVITY 8 MIN Press the Oops Button

- 1 (1 min) Hand out the cards: Oops (I tap it), Tell (I tell a grown-up), Fixed (we fix it together).
- 2 (2 min) Model with Hackle. “Oops! I need help!” You answer: “Thank you for telling me. It’s not your fault. Let’s fix it together.” Show the crossed-out frown: a grown-up should not say “Why did you do that?” If one does, tell another helper.
- 3 (3 min) Pair practice, three rounds. “Oops! I need help.” / “Thank you for telling me. Let’s fix it together.” Rounds: a confusing pop-up; a picture made your tummy feel funny; the screen went dark.
- 4 (1 min) What the grown-up does next: look calmly, turn it off together, hug.
- 5 (1 min) Body feelings. Funny tummy, hot face, fast heart: “Pause. Tell someone.” Smell the flower, blow the candle.

4 TAKEAWAY 2 MIN “If something online feels yucky, I press the Oops Button and Tell. I am never in trouble.”

Hand signal: “Oops! Tell! Fixed!” Hands on cheeks, then hand on heart and reach out, then arms up and wiggle.

EXIT TICKET Color the speech bubble a helper says (the heart). Children color their Oops Button card red and take it home.

PREP IN 5 MINUTES

Materials: An Oops Button card per child, a big red paper OOPS! circle, Hackle puppet, two reaction signs, Activity Book page, crayons.

- ☐ Print the Oops Button cards; make the big red circle.
- ☐ Make the calm-face sign and the crossed-out frowning-face sign.
- ☐ Draw a three-picture strip: look calmly, turn the screen off, hug.

3 DISCUSS 3 MIN

- 1 “What does a good grown-up helper say back?” (Thank you for telling me.)
- 2 “Are you in trouble for pressing the Oops Button?” (No! Never.)
- 3 “What if the grown-up is busy?” (Keep telling until someone helps.)

FUN BOOST Oops, Tell, Fixed! (30 seconds). Three times, faster each time, then one calm breath.

LEVEL-UP Oops at Home. Think of three small oopsies that are not about screens and what a helper says back.

DIFFERENTIATE Allow a “silent Oops”: hand the card to the teacher. If a child may fear punishment at home, point to school helpers and do not ask why.

FAMILY CARD Tell your child you will never be upset with them for telling you: “Thank you for telling me.”

IF A STUDENT TELLS YOU SOMETHING

- Say: “Thank you for telling me.”
- “I believe you. It is not your fault.”
- “I will get help from someone whose job is to keep kids safe.”
- Do not say: “I promise I won’t tell anyone.”
- “Why didn’t you tell me sooner?” or “Are you sure?”
- Any leading question (“Did he touch you?”).

First 10 Minutes: see the Disclosure Guide.

Then: tell your counselor or designated person right away. Follow your school policy and your state’s reporting law.

Private vs. Public

BIG IDEA Some things are for sharing and some are private. I check with a grown-up before sharing anything online.

1 HOOK 2'

2 ACTIVITY 8'

3 DISCUSS 3'

4 TAKEAWAY 2'

1 HOOK 2 MIN 60-second script Hold up a picture of a house with a big window and a closed door. “Look at Hackle’s house. Imagine Hackle puts a big sign in the front window that everybody walking by can read. What if the sign had a home address on it? Hackle’s spikes would pop right up. Some things are private, for inside the house. But Hackle does put okay things in the window, like “I love tomato soup.” Those are public: anyone can see. Online is like a big window. So today we sort what is okay to share and what stays private. And what do we do first? We Pause and Check with a grown-up.”

2 ACTIVITY 8 MIN Window or Inside?

- 1 (1 min) Set the rules. Public Window: okay for anyone to see. Private Inside: for us and our grown-ups. Not sure? Pause and Check.
- 2 (5 min) Sort the cards. Everyone votes with their body: arms wide = Public Window, hug yourself and whisper “click!” = Private Inside, Pause Palm = not sure. Public: favorite color, animal, game. Private: full name, address, school, phone number, password, family away on vacation. A picture of my face goes in the middle: check first.
- 3 (1 min) Chant: “Not sure? Pause! Check with a grown-up!”
- 4 (1 min) Hackle’s House page. One thing in the window, one inside. A pretend sign, never a real address.

FUN BOOST Window or Inside Jump (30 seconds). Hold up a card: arms wide (public), or hug yourself and say “click!” (private). Not sure? Pause Palm in the middle.

LEVEL-UP Inside Hunt. With a grown-up, find three private things at home (a key, a letter, a password card) and whisper “Inside!”

1 PREP IN 5 MINUTES

Materials: Two hoops or yarn circles (“Public Window,” “Private Inside”), 12 sort cards, Activity Book page “Hackle’s House,” crayons.

- ☐ Lay out the hoops (or skip them and use the body vote).
- ☐ Shuffle the 12 sort cards.
- ☐ With 25 to 30 children, set up two circles and two card sets.

3 DISCUSS 3 MIN

- 1 “What does private mean?” (Just for me and my grown-up helpers.)
- 2 “Why might a grown-up check before we share a picture?” (To keep us safe.)
- 3 “Who can we check with?” (Our Tell-Someone Team!)

4 TAKEAWAY 2 MIN “Some things are private. When I’m not sure, I Pause and Check with a grown-up before I share.”

Hand signal: Pause (palm) before sharing. Check (eyes) with a grown-up. Tell: “Can I share this?”

EXIT TICKET Put a lock on the private ones: the address sign and the school building.

DIFFERENTIATE Use 6 cards (3 public, 3 private) with green and red borders. Some children’s photos and names must stay private for safety: check with the counselor.

FAMILY CARD Ask: “What would you ask me before sharing something online?” Answer: “Ask me first.”

Online Friends vs. Real Friends

BIG IDEA People in a game chat may not be who they say. I keep private things private, and I never keep a “yucky secret.” I tell a grown-up.

1 HOOK 2'

2 ACTIVITY 8'

3 DISCUSS 3'

4 TAKEAWAY 2'

1 HOOK 2 MIN 60-second script Hold up the Maya card.

“Maya loves her class friends. She sees them every day. They are her real-life friends. Some people in a game chat are online friends. Maybe they’re nice. But online we cannot see who is really there. They might not be a kid. We can’t be sure. So Hackle has a rule: “With people I only know online, I keep private things private, and I tell a grown-up if something feels strange.” A surprise is a happy party for your mom, and soon everybody knows. A secret that makes your tummy feel funny, one someone says you can never tell your grown-ups, we tell. Always.”

2 ACTIVITY 8 MIN Surprise or Tell?

1 (2 min) Surprise or Tell? Show each Surprise-or-Secret card. Happy surprise: party-popper jump, “Surprise!” “Don’t tell your grown-ups,” or a request for private things or pictures: hand on heart, reach out, “Tell!”

2 (4 min) Game-chat cards. Read each pretend message calmly. Class: Pause Palm, “I’ll tell my grown-up!” The sixth (“Great job on that level!”) is kind, and a grown-up should still know who we play with. No menacing voice; nobody plays the stranger.

3 (1 min) Family-approved friends. We only play with people our grown-ups know and approve.

4 (1 min) Never your fault. If someone says something yucky in a chat, telling is exactly right.

FUN BOOST Surprise Jump or Tell Wave (30 seconds). Read a card; everyone does the move.

LEVEL-UP Teach a Friend. Explain “surprise vs. yucky secret” to a stuffed animal.

PREP IN 5 MINUTES

Materials: 6 game-chat cards (pretend messages from “Player123”), 8 Surprise-or-Secret cards, floor spots “Happy Surprise” and “Tell a Grown-Up.”

- ☐ Lay out the two floor spots.
- ☐ Sort the 8 cards: four surprises, four secrets.
- ☐ Order the 6 chat cards; the sixth is a kind message.

3 DISCUSS 3 MIN

1 “Can we always tell who is in a game chat?” (No.)

2 “Surprise or secret: what is the difference?” (A surprise is happy and shared soon. A secret to hide from grown-ups, we tell.)

3 “Whose fault is it if someone says something yucky?” (Never mine.)

4 TAKEAWAY 2 MIN “Online, I can’t always tell who is who. I keep private things private. I never keep a yucky secret. I tell a grown-up.”

Hand signal: Pause (palm). Check how my tummy feels. Tell (hand on heart, reach out).

EXIT TICKET Draw a heart by the picture you would tell a grown-up about (the chat bubble that says “Don’t tell your parents”).

DIFFERENTIATE Use only the surprise-or-secret cards. “Secret” can mean different things in other languages: use pictures. Never criticize a family’s rules.

FAMILY CARD Ask: “Is there anything in your games that you want to show me?” Thank your child for telling you.

IF A STUDENT TELLS YOU SOMETHING

- Say: “Thank you for telling me.”
- “I believe you. It is not your fault.”
- “I will get help from someone whose job is to keep kids safe.”

- Do not say: “I promise I won’t tell anyone.”
- “Why didn’t you tell me sooner?” or “Are you sure?”
- Any leading question (“Did he touch you?”).

First 10 Minutes: see the Disclosure Guide.

Then: tell your counselor or designated person right away. Follow your school policy and your state’s reporting law.

Kind Clicks

BIG IDEA I use kind words online and in person. If mean words show up, it is not my fault, and I tell a grown-up.

1 HOOK 2'

2 ACTIVITY 8'

3 DISCUSS 3'

4 TAKEAWAY 2'

PREP IN 5 MINUTES

Materials: 8 kind message cards, 6 unkind cards (mild, generic words), a paper heart per child, crayons, “Kindness Bubble” poster.

- ☐ Sort the message cards into kind and unkind.
- ☐ Hang the Kindness Bubble poster.
- ☐ Set out paper hearts (or let children draw one).

1 HOOK 2 MIN 60-second script Hold up the Dev card and the Lily card. “Dev drew a beautiful dragon. His grandma helped him share it in a message. A reply popped up from a kid he barely knew: “That drawing is ugly.” Dev’s face felt hot and his eyes felt wet. What should Dev do? His hackles go up. Pause: don’t write something mean back. Check: “Does this feel okay?” No. Tell: show a grown-up. Lily was nearby. She said, “Dev, that was a mean thing to say. Your drawing is great. Let’s tell Grandma.” That’s a helper friend. Today we practice kind words. And if somebody says mean words to you, it is never your fault.”

FUN BOOST Kind Sparkle Pass (30 seconds). In a circle, pass a “sparkle” (jazz hands) and say one kind word. Faster each time.

LEVEL-UP Kind Mission. Do one kind thing for someone today, including someone playing alone.

DIFFERENTIATE Offer sentence frames with pictures (“I like your ____.”). Do not single out children who have been bullied or who bully.

FAMILY CARD Tell your child: “If anyone is ever unkind to you online, it is not your fault, and I want to know.”

2 ACTIVITY 8 MIN Kindness Bubbles

- 1 (2 min) Kind or unkind? Thumbs up for kind (“Want to play with us?”), Pause Palm for unkind (“Go away.”). “How would you feel if you got this?”
- 2 (2 min) Three moves for mean words: Pause Palm (don’t write back), show a grown-up, be a helper (“That’s not kind,” or go with a friend to tell). Pairs practice: “I’ll show a grown-up.”
- 3 (3 min) Make kind hearts. Draw or write one kind thing to say to a friend. Place the hearts on the Kindness Bubble poster.
- 4 (1 min) Read 3 or 4 hearts aloud. “Kind clicks make everyone feel safe.”

3 DISCUSS 3 MIN

- 1 “What do we do if a mean message comes?” (Pause. Don’t write back. Show a grown-up.)
- 2 “Is a mean message the fault of the child who gets it?” (Never.)
- 3 “How can we help a friend who got one?” (Be kind. Go tell a grown-up together.)

4 TAKEAWAY 2 MIN “I use kind clicks. If mean words show up, I Pause and tell a grown-up. I can help a friend by telling, too.” Telling is never tattling.

Hand signal: Pause (palm). Check: is it kind? (eyes). Tell a grown-up (hand on heart, reach out).

EXIT TICKET Color the kind message. Draw a Pause Palm on the unkind one.

IF A STUDENT TELLS YOU SOMETHING

- Say: “Thank you for telling me.”
- “I believe you. It is not your fault.”
- “I will get help from someone whose job is to keep kids safe.”
- Do not say: “I promise I won’t tell anyone.”
- “Why didn’t you tell me sooner?” or “Are you sure?”
- Any leading question (“Did he touch you?”).

First 10 Minutes: see the Disclosure Guide.

Then: tell your counselor or designated person right away. Follow your school policy and your state’s reporting law.

Real or Pretend?

BIG IDEA Pictures and voices can be pretend, even if they look and sound real. When I'm not sure, I Pause and Check with a grown-up.

3 DISCUSS 3'

4 TAKEAWAY 2'

1 HOOK 2 MIN 60-second script Hold up the “flying pig” card. “A flying pig! Is that real? (Children: “No!”) Somebody drew it, or a computer made it. It is a pretend picture, and pretend pictures can be fun. Here is something amazing and a little tricky: computers can make pretend pictures and pretend voices that look and sound real. A computer can make a voice that sounds like a grown-up but isn't. It is like a very good costume. Most of the time it is just for fun. Sometimes it might try to fool us. So we Pause, and we Check with a grown-up we trust.”

2 ACTIVITY 8 MIN Real or Pretend Parade

1 (1 min) Body vote: Real = hands on heart; Pretend = hands wiggle like a magic spell.

2 (3 min) Card parade. Children vote on each card. Ask “why” for the flying pig and the two hard cards: “This looks real, but a computer made it. That’s why we Check.” Say once: “It’s okay not to know.”

3 (2 min) Mystery voice. From behind a bag, a silly robot voice: “Hello, friends! I am Robo Pal. Tell me your name and where you live!” Children: Pause Palm, “Pause! Check with a grown-up!” Then reveal. Never imitate a real person.

4 (1 min) Three Check ideas: ask a grown-up; look for clues; use the family code word.

5 (1 min) Wrap up: pretend is fun when we know it’s pretend.

DIFFERENTIATE Use the obviously pretend cards plus 3 real ones. If a child finds pretend voices scary, keep the voice silly and let them choose it.

FAMILY CARD Choose a family code word only your family knows. Tell your child: “If a voice or message asks you to do something strange, even if it sounds like me, check with the code word.” Never write it on the reply slip.

PREP IN 5 MINUTES

Materials: 10 Real-or-Pretend picture cards (5 real, 5 pretend, two of them hard), a paper bag or book for the “mystery voice,” floor spots “Real” and “Pretend.”

- ☐ Place the Real and Pretend floor spots.
- ☐ Shuffle the 10 cards, flying pig on top.
- ☐ Pick a silly robot voice (never a real person’s voice).

3 DISCUSS 3 MIN

1 “Can a computer make a voice?” (Yes! It can sound very real.)

2 “Why do we need a family code word?” (So we know it’s really our family.)

3 “Is it okay if we can’t tell?” (Yes! Even grown-ups check.)

4 TAKEAWAY 2 MIN “Pictures and voices can be pretend. When I’m not sure, I Pause and Check with a grown-up.”

Hand signal: Pause when it seems strange (palm). Check with a grown-up or the code word (eyes). Tell what I saw and heard.

EXIT TICKET Draw a question mark on the picture you would Check. Any answer is fine if the child pauses on at least one.

FUN BOOST Real or Pretend Freeze (30 seconds). Call out silly statements (“A pig flies!”), body vote, freeze in a pose that shows it.

LEVEL-UP Code Word Practice (pretend!). Say “What’s our code word?” to a stuffed animal, never a real code word at school.

IF A STUDENT TELLS YOU SOMETHING

- Say: “Thank you for telling me.”
- “I believe you. It is not your fault.”
- “I will get help from someone whose job is to keep kids safe.”

- Do not say: “I promise I won’t tell anyone.”
- “Why didn’t you tell me sooner?” or “Are you sure?”
- Any leading question (“Did he touch you?”).

First 10 Minutes: see the Disclosure Guide.

Then: tell your counselor or designated person right away. Follow your school policy and your state’s reporting law.

My Body Is Mine

BIG IDEA My body belongs to me. If anyone asks for a picture of it, I say no, I leave, and I tell a trusted adult until someone helps. It is never my fault.

1 HOOK 2'

2 ACTIVITY 8'

3 DISCUSS 3'

4 TAKEAWAY 2'

COUNSELOR HEADS-UP FIRST + OPT-OUT PLAN Check district policy on notice and opt-out [VERIFY]. Notice goes home a week ahead; alternate quiet activity ready. Counselor co-teaches or is on call.

PREP IN 5 MINUTES

Materials: “Body Bubble” poster, Helper Hand sheets, 6 scenario cards (no harm shown), Hackle puppet.

- ☐ Notice sent; alternate ready; counselor told.
- ☐ Hang the Body Bubble poster.
- ☐ Teach as written: no extras, no role-play of harm.

1 HOOK 2 MIN 60-second script Hold Hackle. Speak calmly. “Friends, today is about your body. It belongs to you, like Hackle’s spikes belong to Hackle. The parts covered by your swimsuit or underwear are private. Here are the Body Rules. Say them with me. My body is mine. (hands on tummy) No one needs to see my private parts or take pictures of them. (arms in an X) If anyone asks, or makes me uncomfortable, I say “No” or I leave. (hand up, two steps) I tell a trusted adult, and keep telling until someone helps. (hand on heart, reach out) It is never my fault.”

2 ACTIVITY 8 MIN Say No, Go, Tell

- 1 (1 min) Teach the moves. NO: stop-sign hand, “No. I don’t like that.” GO: two steps away. TELL: hand on heart, reach out, “I’m going to tell.”
- 2 (2 min) Rehearse three times: “No! Go! Tell!” Try it on a tickle you don’t like. “A good helper listens to No.”
- 3 (2 min) Three scenario cards, read calmly; the class says “No, Go, Tell!” A: a game-chat person asks for a body picture. B: a relative wants a hug (“No hug, thanks. High five?”). C: “This is our secret.” Add nothing to Card A.
- 4 (3 min) Tell Turns in pairs: “A person told me to keep a secret about my body.” Partner: “Thank you for telling me. It is not your fault. I will get help.” Then hold up the Helper Hand: keep telling until someone helps.

3 DISCUSS 3 MIN

- 1 “Whose body is it?” (Mine!)
- 2 “What do we do if anyone asks for a picture of our private parts?” (No. Go. Tell.)
- 3 “Whose fault is it?” (Never mine.)
No personal stories in class; offer to talk after, just you and me.

4 TAKEAWAY 2 MIN “My body is mine. I say No, I Go, I Tell a trusted adult until someone helps. It is never my fault.”

Hand signal: No! Go! Tell! with Pause (palm), Check how my body feels, Tell (hand on heart, reach out).

EXIT TICKET Trace the pictures in order: No. Go. Tell. Circle one helper.

FUN BOOST Bubble Breathing (calm, 30 seconds). Draw a big bubble around yourself; breathe in as it grows, out as it settles. Whisper: “My bubble. My body. Mine.”

LEVEL-UP No Thanks, High Five? At home, practice with a stuffed animal.

DIFFERENTIATE Pictures only if needed; offer the “I need help” card. Give nonspeaking children a way to tell (picture cards, AAC).

FAMILY CARD Tell your child: “You can tell me anything, and you will never be in trouble.”

IF A STUDENT TELLS YOU SOMETHING

- Say: “Thank you for telling me.”
- “I believe you. It is not your fault.”
- “I will get help from someone whose job is to keep kids safe.”
- Do not say: “I promise I won’t tell anyone.”
- “Why didn’t you tell me sooner?” or “Are you sure?”
- Any leading question (“Did he touch you?”).

First 10 Minutes: see the Disclosure Guide.

Then: tell your counselor or designated person right away. Follow your school policy and your state’s reporting law.

Screen Balance

BIG IDEA Screens can be fun, and so can many other things. I notice how I feel, and I can choose a break. If screens make me sad, mad, worried, or tired, I tell a grown-up.

1 HOOK 2'

2 ACTIVITY 8'

3 DISCUSS 3'

4 TAKEAWAY 2'

PREP IN 5 MINUTES

Materials: 6 feelings face cards, 8 Break Menu cards, a Balance Plate per child (paper plate in 4 wedges, or the printed page 2), crayons, a chime, the Hackles Certificate.

- ☐ Use the printed Balance Plate (page 2) for zero prep.
- ☐ Fill in the Hackles Certificates, or let children write their own names.
- ☐ Find the chime.

1 HOOK 2 MIN 60-second script Hold up the Lily card and a feelings face card. “Lily loves her tablet. Videos, music, games. But after a long time on it, her tummy felt grumpy and her eyes felt tired. She did not know why. Have you ever felt grumpy like that? (Accept nods.) That’s normal. It means our body wants something different. Hackle says: screens can be fun, and so can other things. Playing outside, drawing, singing, hugging a pet. Today we notice how we feel and choose a break. And if a screen ever makes you feel sad, mad, worried or scared, you can tell a grown-up. It is not your fault, and you will not be in trouble.”

2 ACTIVITY 8 MIN My Balance Plate

- 1 (2 min) Feelings check-in. Copy each face. “Our feelings are clues.”
- 2 (2 min) The Break Menu. Act out each of the 8 cards (stretch, sing, draw in the air). Teach: “I need a break.”
- 3 (3 min) My Balance Plate. Four wedges: moving or playing, people, quiet things, screens. “Screens are one wedge, not the whole plate.”
- 4 (1 min) Chime break. Ring it, put crayons down, three slow breaths, stretch.

3 DISCUSS 3 MIN

- 1 “How can your body tell you it’s time for a break?” (Tired eyes, grumpy, wiggly.)
- 2 “What if a screen makes you feel sad, mad, or worried?” (Tell a grown-up. Not my fault.)
- 3 “What if it’s hard to stop?” (Say “I need help to stop,” and pick a break.)

4 TAKEAWAY 2 MIN “Screens are one part of my day. I notice how I feel and choose a break. If something online makes me worried, I tell a grown-up.” Then the certificate: “You are officially a Hackles Champ!”

Hand signal: Pause and notice my feelings (palm). Check: do I need a break? (eyes). Tell (hand on heart, reach out).

EXIT TICKET Circle the face that shows how you feel after too long on a screen. Draw a break you would pick.

FUN BOOST Plate Dance (30 seconds). Call a wedge; everyone does it for 10 seconds: Move, People, Quiet, Screen (freeze like a robot). End with a wobbly one-foot “balance!”

LEVEL-UP Family Break. Pick one Break Menu idea to do with a grown-up this week.

DIFFERENTIATE Use three feelings faces and four Break Menu cards. Do not judge screen time at home; everyone’s day is different.

FAMILY CARD Ask: “How does your body feel after a screen? What break would you choose?” If anything online worries them, they can tell you.

IF A STUDENT TELLS YOU SOMETHING

- Say: “Thank you for telling me.”
- “I believe you. It is not your fault.”
- “I will get help from someone whose job is to keep kids safe.”

- Do not say: “I promise I won’t tell anyone.”
- “Why didn’t you tell me sooner?” or “Are you sure?”
- Any leading question (“Did he touch you?”).

First 10 Minutes: see the Disclosure Guide.

Then: tell your counselor or designated person right away. Follow your school policy and your state’s reporting law.

If a student tells you something

First 10 Minutes. From the Disclosure and Incident Guide, Section 2. Your school’s child-protection policy and your state’s reporting law come first; where they differ from this card, follow them.

Do	Do not
Stay calm. Soften your voice. Keep your face neutral.	Show shock, disgust, anger or panic.
Move to a private place that is still visible to other adults (door open, or a glass window).	Be alone behind a closed door with a child.
Say: “Thank you for telling me. This is not your fault. You are not in trouble.”	Say: “Why did you...?” “How could you...?” “You should have...”
Listen. Use open prompts: “Tell me more.” “What happened next?”	Ask leading questions or press for detail.
Be honest: “I can’t keep this a secret, because I need to get you help. I will tell you who I tell.”	Promise secrecy. Promise outcomes you cannot control.
Write down the child’s exact words afterward.	Investigate, confront the other person, or contact the alleged offender.
Report personally to CPS or law enforcement per law and policy.	Assume telling the principal satisfies your duty.
If a device holds images: do not look, copy, forward or screenshot. Secure it per policy.	Ask the child to show you the images, or look yourself “to check.”
If the child may harm themselves: stay with them, follow your school’s crisis protocol, call the counselor or an administrator at once, and use 988.	Leave a child at risk alone.

HELPFUL PHRASES	PHRASES TO AVOID
• “Thank you for telling me.” • “I’m really glad you came to me.” • “This is not your fault.” “You are not in trouble.” • “I believe you.” • “I can’t keep this secret, because I want to get you help, and I’ll tell you who I’m telling.” • “You do not have to handle this alone.” • “What would help you feel safest right now?”	• “Why did you send it?” “What were you thinking?” (blames) • “You should have told someone sooner.” (blames) • “That’s disgusting,” or any shock (shames) • “I won’t tell anyone.” (cannot be kept) • “I’m sure it’s fine.” (dismisses) • “Are you sure?” “Are you making this up?” (doubts) • “Your parents will be so upset.” (adds fear)

IF THE CHILD CANNOT TALK
• Offer another way: a written note, a drawing, a trusted adult they choose, or the counselor. “You do not have to say it all today. You can show me by writing it down, or we can find someone together.”
