[COLLEGE NAME] · Hackles up? Pause. Check. Tell. One page, front and back if needed. Fill in the blanks, check every number, then print.

The four steps

STEP	IN PLAIN WORDS
Hackles up?	Notice the prickle: too good, too fast, too secret, too scary. Say what is off.
Pause	Nothing has to happen in five minutes. Money waits overnight.
Check	Use a door you opened: the official site you typed, the phone number on the college website or your card.
Tell	A friend, a roommate, an office. A false alarm is fine. If you were fooled, it is never your fault.

Quick rules

- A real employer, landlord, office or bank will not ask for gift cards, crypto or a code they just texted you.
- Never read a login code to anyone who contacted you.
- Protect your email and phone number first. Turn on 2-step or a passkey.
- Voice or video of someone asking for money: hang up and call back on the number you already have.
- Threat about pictures? Stop. Save. Tell. Report. Do not pay. Do not forward images.

Some offices keep what you say private, and some must pass information on. Before you tell anyone, you can ask: "What would you have to share?"
