01 Parent and caregiver letter

FIELD NOTE

No. 1

[HOST ORGANISATION letterhead]

[Date]

Dear families and caregivers,

We are starting a Hackles Club for children aged [AGE BAND]. It meets [DAY and TIME] at [PLACE] for [6 / 8] sessions, starting [DATE]. It is free.

What is Hackles? "Hackles" are the hairs that rise on the back of your neck when something feels off. In Hackles Club, children play games that teach them to notice that feeling and act on it: Hackles up? Pause. Check. Tell. Every session ends with the message that a false alarm is fine, and that if a child is ever tricked, it is never their fault.

What will my child do? Play. The games use paper, cards, puppets, songs and movement. There are no screens and no devices. Children do not log in to anything and we do not collect any information about them. Sessions cover:

- Spotting scams and fake offers
- Passwords and passphrases
- What is fun to share and what stays private
- Being kind online, and what to do when someone is not
- Telling a trusted adult, and what to do if the first adult does not help
- What to do after an oops

Each week your child brings home a card with a short activity to try with you. It takes about five minutes.

What the Club does not cover. The Club does not teach sextortion, grooming, trafficking, sexual content, threats or self-harm. These topics need a trained adult and a family conversation. If your child is ready to talk about something serious, or you would like to, we can help you find the school counselor or another trusted person. [COUNSEL TO CONFIRM wording]

Who leads? Two screened adults are with the children at every session. No adult is ever alone with a child. Leaders are trained, and follow [HOST ORGANISATION]'s child safeguarding policy. Our safeguarding lead is [NAME and CONTACT].

If a child tells a leader something. Leaders listen, say "Thank you for telling me, it is not your fault," and cannot promise to keep a secret that involves a child's safety. Leaders follow the law and our policy, which may mean telling the authorities. [FILL IN the local rule] [COUNSEL TO CONFIRM]

Photos. We do not take photos or video of children in Hackles Club unless you give written permission. [COUNSEL TO CONFIRM]

Privacy. We collect only what [HOST ORGANISATION] already needs to run activities safely (see the registration form). Leaders do not keep copies. We do not collect anything about your child's devices, accounts or home.

What you can do. Talk with your child about what they learn. Say "thank you for telling me" whenever they tell you something. Agree on a family code word. Pick one screen-free time each week.

If you have questions or you would like to see the materials first, please contact [NAME] at [CONTACT]. You can withdraw your child from any session at any time, with no explanation.

Thank you for being a trusted adult.

06 A note about hard conversations at home

IF YOUR CHILD TELLS you something scary, here are the first steps:

1. Stay calm.
2. Say: "Thank you for telling me. It is not your fault. You are not in trouble."
3. Listen. Do not ask "why".
4. Do not blame or punish.
5. Ask for help. [FILL IN local contacts: school counselor, local child protection line, crisis line.]
