FIELD NOTE	No. 1
HACKLES UP? Something feels off, too good, pushy, secret, or scary? Trust that feeling. False alarms are fine. Then: PAUSE. Stop. Do not reply, click, pay, forward, or share. Take one slow breath. CHECK. Who is this, really? What do they want, and how fast? Is anyone asking me to keep it secret, send something private, or pay? How do I feel? TELL. Tell a person you trust. Telling is not tattling. It is the strongest move. It is never your fault. [Small corner icon: Hackle]

FIELD NOTE	No. 84
SAVE. Save the evidence of the threat: the username, the profile name, and the messages that threaten or ask for money, as words. Never forward a picture to anyone. If saving feels like too much, skip it. Telling comes first.
FIELD NOTE	No. 85

FIELD NOTE	No. 86

TELL CARD (ONE PER TRIAD)

LISTENER CARD (ONE PER TRIAD)

FIELD NOTE	No. 88
THE LISTENER SAYS "Thank you for telling me. You are not in trouble. This is not your fault. I am going to help you. Let's stop talking to them, save what we need, and report it together."

OBSERVER CHECKLIST (ONE PER TRIAD)

QUESTION	ROUND 1	ROUND 2
Did the Teller say "I need help"?	Y / N	Y / N
Did the Listener say "not your fault"?	Y / N	Y / N
Was "do not pay" said or understood?	Y / N	Y / N
Was a next step named (save, report)?	Y / N	Y / N
One thing that made it easier

SCENARIO CARDS (USED IN THE 30-MINUTE EXTENSION, OR FOR SMALL GROUPS)

FIELD NOTE	No. 89
S-1: Early pattern. In a game chat, a new contact seems like a classmate-age friend. After a few days of chatting, they ask to move to a private app. What do you Check? Who would you Tell?

FIELD NOTE	No. 90
S-2: The one-hour deadline. A message says: "I have a picture of you. Pay with gift cards in one hour or I will send it to your contacts." The character is not sure the picture is real. Walk through STOP, SAVE, TELL, REPORT. Does it matter whether the picture is real, edited, or fake? (No. The steps are the same.)

FIELD NOTE	No. 91
S-3: Already paid once. A character paid once, and now the person asks for more. What does the character do now? (Stop paying, tell an adult. Paying often does not end it [VERIFIED 2026-10-05: NCMEC, missingkids.org/theissues/sextortion: cooperating or paying rarely stops the blackmail].) Is the character in trouble? (No.)

FIELD NOTE	No. 92
S-4: A friend whispers. A friend says someone is threatening them and begs, "Do not tell anyone." What do you say? How do you help without keeping a dangerous secret? (Sample: "I care about you too much to keep this secret. It is not your fault. I will go with you to tell someone.")

FIELD NOTE	No. 93
S-5: The first adult fumbles. The character tells an adult who replies, "Why would you do that?" What does the character do next? (Next-Rung Rule. Tell someone else. Keep going until someone helps.)

FIELD NOTE	No. 94
S-6: "Your parents will find out." The message says, "Your parents will find out and you will be grounded." Why is this pressure? What does the character do? (It is a pressure tactic. Telling is still the right move. Adults focus on helping.)

QUICK CARD
Reporting Quick Card (print one per student for home; all [VERIFY])

FIELD NOTE	No. 95
IF SOMEONE THREATENS OR PRESSURES YOU ONLINE STOP: do not reply. Do not pay. SAVE: usernames and threatening messages as words. Never forward a picture. Words and usernames can be saved. Never save, send or show an intimate picture of anyone under 18, even as proof. Not sure? Tell a trusted adult first. For threats: tell first, block with an adult's help, delete nothing. TELL: a trusted adult. Keep going until someone helps. REPORT: in the app; NCMEC CyberTipline: report.cybertip.org, 1-800-843-5678; remove images of someone under 18: takeitdown.ncmec.org. Crisis support: call or text 988. Emergency: 911.

RPI-ALT: ALTERNATE ACTIVITY PACKET: "JOB SCAMS"

FIELD NOTE	No. 147
Remy is thirteen and wants to earn money. A message says: "Paid data-entry job, $40 an hour, no experience. Pay a $60 starter fee by gift card today to hold your spot. Do not tell anyone, the spot will go to someone else." Remy feels excited and a little uneasy.

- Write one question Remy could ask to check the offer: who is this, what do they want, who else knows?
- With a partner, say the Tell-3 for a friend: "A friend of mine was offered a job that asks for a fee and was told not to tell anyone."
- Read the Reporting Quick Card together. A trusted adult can report a scam to the platform and to the bank if money was sent.

Debrief for the supervising adult: The scenario teaches the same flags with no exploitation content. Be warm and low-key. If the student says anything personal, use the disclosure protocol (Appendix C). Hand the student the Reporting Quick Card.
