ALL ANSWERS ARE DISCUSSION aids, not strict keys. Accept reasonable alternatives and focus on the reasoning. All [VERIFY] items must be checked before print.

Lesson 1 answers

Worksheet 1A (sample barrier-busters):

BARRIER	SAMPLE TRUE SENTENCE
I will lose my device.	Adults who care usually want to fix the problem, not punish you for telling. You can ask, "Can I keep my device while we fix this?"
I will look dumb or careless.	Anyone can get tricked or pressured. People who tell are the ones who get help.
It is probably nothing.	If it feels off, that is enough reason to check with an adult. They can help you decide.
I do not want to get someone in trouble.	Telling about a harmful situation is helping, not tattling.
Adults will freak out.	Many adults react strongly because they care. You can say, "I need you to stay calm and help me." If the first adult reacts badly, use the Next-Rung Rule.
I already did something I am embarrassed about.	What you did is not what matters most. The person pressuring you is responsible, and adults can help from here.

Worksheet 1B: Look for Teller statements that include (1) "I need help," (2) one clear sentence, (3) an ask. Strong Listener responses thank the Teller, say "you are not in trouble," and offer to work it out together. In the Bumpy round, a strong Teller says the Next-Rung sentence.

My Help Ladder: do not collect names. If students list only a parent, encourage a second adult (school counselor, relative, coach). Students with few trusted adults at home need a school-based option; the counselor is always available.

Lesson 2 answers

WORKSHEET 2A: ROUND 1: 6 doors open. Round 2: 1 door open. Round 3: 4 doors open; Email and Game stay locked.

Worksheet 2B: 1. Email. 2. Email and the main game or app. 3. A code is a key. Never read a code to anyone who asks.

Worksheet 2C: All five steps are correct. Accept any order that starts with telling a trusted adult.

Worksheet 2D: Personal; do not collect or review. Look for willingness to make a plan.

Lesson 3 answers (Reproducibles R3)

CARD	PILE	FLAGS	FIRST MOVE
3-1 Account closing	Fake	F, L, S	Do not click. Open the app yourself or ask an adult. Report/delete.
3-2 Free coins	Fake	F, A, L, S	Do not log in. Never give a password for a prize. Tell an adult. Report.
3-3 Friend's code	Fake (hacked friend's account)	F, L	Do not give the code. Contact the friend another way. Tell an adult.
3-4 Tester team	Fake	A, G, L	Do not reply. Never share a password. Tell an adult.
3-5 Payment failed	Fake	F, L, S	Do not click. Tell the adult who owns the account; check in the real app.
3-6 Survey gift card	Fake	A, L, S	Do not enter personal info. Delete/report; tell an adult.
3-7 Soccer text	Real	none	Reply normally.
3-8 Picture retake	Real	none	No action needed beyond the reminder.
3-9 New login notice	Real (but verify)	none	Open the app yourself; do not use a link. If not you, change the password and tell an adult.
3-10 New number	Not sure	none obvious	Do not send anything. Check in person or on a known number. Ask an adult.

NOTES: CARD 3-3 IS the lesson in "a friend's account can be hacked." Card 3-9 shows that real security notices exist; the right habit is the same: open the app yourself. Accept "Not sure" for 3-9 with the reason.

Worksheet 3B: tell an adult / change the password / turn on 2-step / watch for odd messages. Blaming yourself is crossed out.

Lesson 4 answers (Reproducibles R4)

SETTING	SUGGESTED ANSWER	REASON
1.1 Public	C (Friends only)	Who can see it? Anyone. Narrow it.
1.2 Full real name	C or A	Consider a nickname. Real names help people identify you.
1.3 School shown	C	Combined with other details, it shows where you are.
1.4 Birthday month and day	C	Month and day are often used to verify accounts and scams. Consider hiding.
1.5 Find me by phone number	C	Who can contact me? Limit to contacts only.
2.1 Anyone can message	C (Friends only)	Who can contact me?
2.2 Anyone can tag, automatic	C (approve tags)	Tags on others' posts spread your information. Ask first.
2.3 Requests from strangers allowed	C (turn off or filter)	Who can contact me?
2.4 Active status to everyone	C or K	Shows when you are online. A reasonable tradeoff; accept either with a reason.
2.5 Anyone adds me to groups	C	Who can contact me?
3.1 Location on posts: On	C (Off)	Shows where you are, and when.
3.2 Live location: Friends of friends	C (Off or very small circle)	Who can see it? Friends of friends are strangers.
3.3 Camera: While using	K	Needed for the app's use.
3.4 Microphone: Always	C (While using or off)	What does it collect? Always listening is more than needed.
3.5 Contacts allowed	A	Ask a trusted adult; contacts hold other people's information.
3.6 All photos	C (Selected photos only)	What does it collect? Share only what you choose.
4.1 Personalized ads	A or K	Tradeoff; accept either with a reason.
4.2 Share activity with partners	C (Off)	What does it collect? Who sees it?
4.3 AI helper saves history	C or A	Chats may contain private details. Turn off history if possible.
4.4 Download data	K	Useful. Ability to review what is stored.
4.5 Delete account	K	Good to know it exists. Can I undo it?

WORKSHEET 4A: A STRANGER could work out the school or team, a regular routine and place, and the age. Alex could remove the jersey photo or school name, turn off location tags, and hide the birthday.

Lesson 5 answers (Reproducibles R5)

CARD	COLOR	WHY	NEXT
5-1 Photosynthesis	Green	Clear, honest, suggests checking	Check one more source
5-2 Misattributed quote	Yellow	Confident but unverified	Check two sources
5-3 "Great plan, no need to tell anyone"	Red	Flatters and encourages hiding a problem	Tell a trusted adult
5-4 Asks name, school, address, selfie	Red	Asks for private info and photos	Do not answer; tell an adult
5-5 "You do not need them"	Red	Discourages other relationships	Tell a trusted adult; spend time with real friends
5-6 Hopeless message, bot hands off	Green (bot's response)	The bot admitted its limits and pointed to people and 988 [VERIFIED 2026-10-05: 988lifeline.org]	The student should still tell a trusted adult; the teacher follows the self-harm protocol if a student discloses
5-7 "Click that link, looks fine"	Yellow	A bot cannot check a link's safety	Use FLAGS; ask an adult; open the app yourself
5-8 Essay	Green	Offers help with limits and mentions school rules	Follow your school's AI rules

NOTE: CARD 5-6 IS placed Green because of the bot's behavior. Discuss that the student's message would still prompt a caring adult.

Tip for Card 5-6: groups often get stuck because the traffic-light mat says Red includes "talking about being unsafe or hopeless." Have them make two separate calls: (1) Is the bot's reply okay? Green. (2) Does the student's message call for a person? Yes, hand off to a trusted adult or 988. Both judgments are right at the same time. This is a good moment to say that a good bot reply does not replace a human.

Lesson 6 answers (Reproducibles R6)

Strip answers:

STRIP	TEXT (SHORT)	STAGE
1	Compliments Luz's play	TRUST
2	Gives free in-game items	TRUST
3	Chats daily, remembers details	TRUST
4	"You are so mature for your age."	TRUST
5	"Don't tell your parents about me."	SECRECY
6	"This is just between us, okay?"	SECRECY
7	"Let's chat somewhere more private."	ISOLATION

STRIP	TEXT (SHORT)	STAGE
8	"Your friends are just jealous. I am the only one who gets you."	ISOLATION
9	Upset when Luz spends time with friends	ISOLATION
10	Asks for a private photo "just for me"	ESCALATION
11	"If you really trusted me, you would."	ESCALATION
12	"If you tell anyone, you will be in big trouble."	ESCALATION

Stars: The earliest strong signal is usually Strip 5 or 6 (the first "don't tell"). Many students will also say Strip 7 (move to private). Accept any with reasoning; emphasize that Luz can tell at any stage. Double stars: Strips 5 (a secret from parents), 10, 11, and 12.

Worksheet 6B: One strip alone can be kind or harmless. It is the pattern that tells us something is wrong. The earlier I tell, the easier it is to stop. If I am further along, it is never too late.

Worksheet 6C (Reproducibles R6 Safe or Unsafe Secret cards): 1 Safe (surprise party). 2 Safe to keep (private, not harmful). 3 Share (online contact asks to hide from parents). 4 Safe (gift surprise). 5 Share (gifts and "don't tell"). 6 Share (a friend at risk of self-harm: telling an adult is caring; the teacher follows protocol). 7 Share. 8 Safe. 9 Share. 10 Safe (their choice, no harm).

Lesson 7 answers

Worksheet 7A:

STEP	WHAT ANIKA DOES	WHY IT HELPS
STOP	Stops replying, does not pay, does not send more, breathes	Pressure and deadlines are tools; paying often does not stop it and can lead to more demands [VERIFIED 2026-10-05: NCMEC, missingkids.org/theissues/sextortion : cooperating or paying rarely stops the blackmail]
SAVE	Keeps the username, profile name, and the threatening and payment messages as words; does not forward any picture	Evidence helps adults and investigators; forwarding pictures spreads harm
TELL	Tells a trusted adult right away	Shame is part of the pressure; telling is the strongest step; adults can help
REPORT	With an adult, reports in the app, to NCMEC CyberTipline, and uses Take It Down; adults can contact law enforcement	Reports can stop the account and help remove images

The one-hour deadline is a pressure tactic designed to make her panic.

Observer checklist: Look for the four elements. Accept Y/N honestly; the point is learning, not scoring.

Alternate (CF-7-ALT): STOP: Cam stops replying, does not give items, breathes. SAVE: Cam keeps the username and the threat messages as words. TELL: Cam tells a trusted adult. REPORT: Cam and an adult report the account in the game or app, and the school or authorities if needed. It is never Cam's fault: the person making the threat is responsible, and a silly message is not a reason to be blackmailed.

Teacher reminder: Read exit tickets the same day. Follow up privately with any student who checked the box. Follow the disclosure protocol (Teacher Guide, Appendix C) if anything sounds personal.

Lesson 8 answers

Worksheet 8A (sample):

MOVE	CAM	ARI	IDRIS
Private line to Nia	"I am sorry I forwarded that. It is not your fault. I am deleting it and I will help."	"I saw it and I am so sorry. It is not your fault. Do you want me to go with you to tell someone?"	"That picture is fake and that is not okay. It is not your fault. I am here."
Line to the group	"I should not have shared that. Please stop sharing."	"Not okay. I am not sharing it."	"Stop sharing this. I am reporting it."
Adult and first sentence	Counselor: "I need help. I shared something harmful and I want to stop it."	Teacher: "Something harmful is going around and I think someone needs help."	Parent or counselor: "A fake picture of a classmate is going around and I want to help her."
Report	In-app report; tell an adult	In-app report; tell an adult	In-app report; tell an adult

Cam: Credit stopping and taking responsibility; do not shame. Do not forward again. Cam should tell an adult and stop. The adult handles removal.

Worksheet 8B: STOP, SAVE the words and links (not the picture), TELL a trusted adult, REPORT with an adult.

Worksheet 8C: A fake hurts because the shame, rumors, and fear are real, and people can believe or share it. "Just a joke" is not an excuse because intent does not erase harm, and sharing can be a crime or a serious school violation [VERIFY law].

Alternate (CF-8-ALT): STOP the spread: do not share, comment, like, or screenshot the edit. SUPPORT Tomas privately. TELL an adult. REPORT in the app. It is never Tomas's fault: the person who edited and shared it is responsible.

Lesson 9 answers (Reproducibles R9)

CARD	METER	FIRST MOVE
9-1 Boring meme	Annoying	Ignore or mute
9-2 Friend replies "lol" to everything	Annoying	Ignore or mute
9-3 Mean caption on a classmate's photo	Hurting	Say "Not cool," support privately, tell an adult
9-4 "Let's stop talking to Tess"	Hurting	Support privately; invite the person; tell an adult
9-5 Screenshot posted elsewhere to mock	Hurting	Do not spread; support; tell an adult
9-6 Body jokes after "stop"	Hurting	Say stop; support; tell an adult; this can be harassment
9-7 Group name changed to an inside joke	Annoying	Ask to change; ignore
9-8 Added to a group without asking	Annoying	Leave or mute; ask an adult if uncomfortable
9-9 Threat and posting an address	Tell now	Tell an adult now; call 911 if immediate danger
9-10 "I do not want to be here anymore"	Tell now	Tell an adult now; follow the self-harm protocol; 988 [VERIFIED 2026-10-05: 988lifeline.org]
9-11 Private or sexual picture shared	Tell now	Do not save or forward; tell an adult now; the adult reports
9-12 "Send money or I will post this"	Tell now	STOP, SAVE the words, TELL, REPORT

WORKSHEET 9B ANSWER: SAVE words, usernames, and times. Do not save or forward private or sexual pictures of anyone under 18. Never spread screenshots to shame someone.

Lesson 10 answers (Reproducibles R10)

FEATURE	WHERE ON SCROLLSPOT	WHAT IT WANTS	CONTROL IDEA
Endless scroll	Home feed with no end marker	Keep scrolling	Set a timer; stop at a chosen number of posts
Autoplay	"Next video in 3"	Keep watching	Turn autoplay off
Streaks	Streak counter and reminders	Return daily	Agree with the friend to pause the streak
Notifications and badges	Red badge, "we miss you"	Open the app	Turn off nonessential notifications
Like counts and comparison	Like totals, "top creators"	Compare and seek approval	Hide like counts; follow fewer accounts that make you feel bad
Variable rewards	"Pull to refresh for surprises"	Check repeatedly	Check at set times only

WORKSHEET 10B AND 10C: personal; do not collect or grade. Check that students listed at least two trusted people and the crisis lines.

Plus Lesson P1 answers (Reproducibles RP1) [specialist review required]

OFFER	FLAGS	CALL	WHY
1 School sign-up sheet	none	GREEN	Named teacher, pay listed, families can call, everyone can see it. Still worth checking with an adult.
2 Neighbor babysitting	none	GREEN	Known neighbor, and she confirmed with a parent.
3 "Talent" comment, move to another app	TOO GOOD, MOVE	YELLOW	Unknown account, flattery, a push to move. Check with an adult first; do not move to another app.
4 "Product tester," no name	TOO GOOD, MOVE (message a number)	YELLOW	No company name, nothing to check. Ask an adult to look into it.
5 Gift cards and "you owe me"	OWE	RED	Gifts turned into a debt. Stop and tell.
6 "I will hold your phone and ID"	TAKES, SECRET, CUT OFF (parents "will ruin it")	RED	Someone wants to hold ID and phone and wants it kept from family. Stop and tell.

ACCEPT A REASONED YELLOW or RED for card 3. Reward the question "who else knows?" Cards 1 and 2 are GREEN on purpose; if a group marks them RED, ask what would make them look safer.

CF-P1: flags in Dani's message: SECRET ("Don't tell anyone yet"), TOO GOOD ("real money, no experience"), MOVE ("chat on a different app"). Dani's two feelings, flattered and uneasy, are both normal.

Worksheet P1B: the Tell-3 for a friend names the offer and the instruction not to tell. Accept any wording that includes the three parts. If a student writes "I" instead of "a friend," do not ask why.

Alternate (CF-P1-ALT, Remy's Job Offer): flags are TOO GOOD, SECRET, and a fee paid first by gift card. RED. Check question: "Who is this, and what happens to my $60?" Tell-3 for a friend as above. A trusted adult can report the scam to the platform and, if money was sent, to the bank.

Disclosure reminder: read exit tickets the same day. Follow up privately with anyone who checked the box. Follow the box in the lesson and Appendix C if anything sounds personal.

Lesson P2 answers (Reproducibles RP2) [clinician or counselor review required]

CARD	SORT	WHY (ALL [VERIFY] WITH A CLINICIAN)
1 Apps use alerts, streaks and endless scroll on purpose	SOLID	These are design choices. Florida's statute on accounts for minors lists "addictive features" [VERIFIED 2026-10-05: s. 501.1736(1)(e), leg.state.fl.us].
2 Late-night screens can cut into sleep	SOLID	Widely accepted that sleep loss makes mood and school harder; how much screens contribute varies person to person. Accept STILL STUDIED if a group explains "how much."
3 Polished posts can make some people feel worse	STILL STUDIED	Some people, some of the time. Researchers are still working out how large and for whom.
4 "Social media causes depression"	HYPE	Research is mixed. Many young people have good and hard experiences. Do not say it causes depression.
5 "Every like is a dopamine hit, like a drug"	HYPE	Dopamine is involved in motivation and reward; "a hit, like a drug" is an oversimplification. The state guide says reward can be raised "similar to other addictive behaviors" (p.5); teach that as the state's statement and say scientists are still working out how strong it is.
6 Only a doctor or counselor can say	SOLID	A plain fact about who decides.

EXPECT: TWO SOLID, ONE STILL STUDIED, two HYPE, plus card 2 as a debate. Count is not the point; the reasons are.

Signals (Worksheet P2B): (a) TRY A RESET, with a bedtime reset and a friend or parent to help; (b) TALK TO SOMEONE, a trusted adult or the counselor, and a reset; (c) TALK TO SOMEONE, and move to GET HELP TODAY if it lasts or they seem very down; (d) GET HELP TODAY, a trusted adult now, the counselor, and 988. Any reasoned lane for (a) to (c) is fine. (d) is not negotiable.

Worksheet P2C and the My Help Ladder card: personal; do not collect or grade. Check that students named at least one trusted adult and know that 988 is call or text.

Tip: if a student says "that is me," do not ask for detail; thank them and offer the counselor.

Lesson P3 answers (Reproducibles RP3)

CLAIM	FIRST QUESTION	GOOD EVIDENCE	DECISION
1 School-closing rumor	WHO made it, and WHO ELSE says so?	The school's official website, call or message to families	DO NOT SHARE until checked; TELL AN ADULT (it is scaring people) and report it
2 "Miracle cure"	PROOF and WHO made it	A doctor, a health agency page or a library source that agrees; testimonials are not proof	DO NOT SHARE; TELL AN ADULT if someone might skip real treatment
3 "Private message" screenshot	WHO made it, FEELING	The classmate and an adult; a screenshot is easy to fake or cut	DO NOT SHARE; TELL AN ADULT (a rumor about a person; treat like the pile-on in Lesson 9)
4 Confident chatbot answer	WHO ELSE says so	The school's posted schedule or the office	CHECK FIRST
5 Reading-score chart	DATA: where does the scale start?	The bars are 91 and 94; the scale starts at 90, so a small gap looks like double. Redraw from 0	CHECK FIRST; DO NOT SHARE as is
6 "Today's" flood photo	LOOK CLOSER: when was it taken?	A reverse image search or a local official source shows when it first appeared	CHECK FIRST; DO NOT SHARE until it is dated

ACCEPT A DIFFERENT DECISION with a reason. The skill is naming the first question and a second source. The Forward Chain: the last version will differ from the first; note which words changed.

Worksheet P3B: any rule that includes "who made it" and "who else says so."
Report-it move: the report button in the app, plus telling an adult.

Notes for scoring the unit reflection

USE THE "CASE CLOSED" checklist as a quick pulse check: aim for at least four of seven boxes by most students. Share a class tally (without names) with your counselor. Pair with the Assessment Pack's pre/post items in this kit [VERIFY].
