FIELD NOTE	No. 1
Status: DRAFT. Whether service hours count toward graduation, scholarships, honor societies or the co-curricular transcript is a college decision. [LOCAL] Recognition never includes names or photos of children. Digital badges contain the mentor's name only, with the mentor's consent.

01 What counts as a service hour

ACTIVITY	HOURS CREDITED
Four-hour training (once, plus refreshers)	Training hours as logged [4]
Event shift at a school or library (including set-up and clean-up)	Actual time on site
Pre-event briefing with the Station Lead	Actual time
Station preparation (printing, cutting cards, art for the Passport)	Up to [2] hours per event, with Station Lead approval
Recruiting table or club presentation	Actual time, up to [4] per semester
Written reflection at the end of the semester	[1]
Debrief after an event	Actual time

TRAVEL TIME TO AND from events does not count unless the college decides otherwise [LOCAL]. Keep a simple log with the date, event, hours, and Station Lead initials. No child names or details.

02 Levels and badges

06 End-of-semester reflection (one page, graded pass or no pass if used for a course)

PROMPTS FOR THE MENTOR (no child names or identifying details):

1. What did you do at events, and what did you learn about teaching and about yourself?
2. Describe a moment when you used a boundary or a hand-off. What did you notice?
3. What did you learn about digital safety that you did not know?
4. How did the role connect to your major or career interests?
5. What would you change to make the program better?

The advisor reads reflections for learning. Reflections are not shared outside the program without the mentor's permission.

07 Record keeping

KEEP SERVICE LOGS AND badge records in the coordinator's secure file. The impact tracker never contains names, hours by person, badge lists or any child data.

Hackles has not been evaluated in a controlled study.
